

Directions for Logging On To Google Classroom

Using your internet browser go to classroom.google.com Users may be directed to log into an account instead of reaching the classroom screen. If you reach the classroom screen, skip to step 3.

1. Users must be logged in using the student cdsd.org account in order to access Google Classroom. Click “Sign in” in the top right-hand corner if you are not currently signed into a google account. If signed in using a different Gmail account, you will need to sign out of it and log in with the student cdsd.org email account. You will need to have access to the student username and password, which should be shared by the classroom teacher.

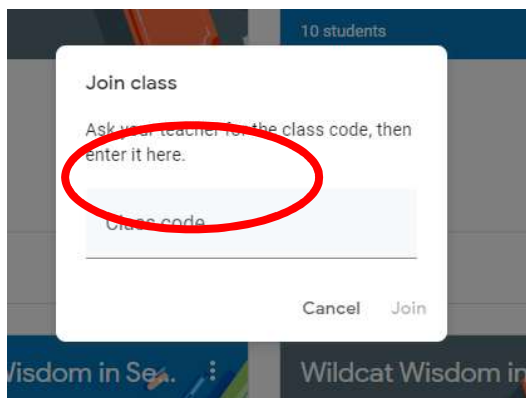

A screenshot of the Google sign-in page. At the top is the Google logo, followed by the text 'Sign in' and 'Use your Google Account'. Below this is an input field labeled 'Email or phone' containing the text 'username@students.cdschools.org'. Underneath the input field is a blue link that says 'Forgot email?'. Further down, there is a line of text: 'Not your computer? Use Guest mode to sign in privately.' followed by a blue link 'Learn more'. At the bottom left is a blue link 'Create account' and at the bottom right is a blue button labeled 'Next'.

The student email address is the student username followed by @students.cdschools.org

2. There are two ways to JOIN the Google Classroom once you are logged onto the classroom.google.com site:
- If you received a class code from your teacher(s), click the “+” in the top, right hand side of the screen enter the class code and select JOIN:

- If you were added as a student to the Classroom you will find the title of the Classroom pop up on the tile page/ home page when you log in. Simply click the blue JOIN button that will appear in the bottom right corner of the tile.

3. The classrooms you have joined will now be accessible on the screen once you've logged in.
